

National Library Week 2019

SPECIAL EVENTS

Wed., April 10, 4:00pm

TEEN CRAFTY BOOK CLUB

Sat. April 13, 11:00-1:00pm

CHILDREN'S PLANTING CRAFT

Sat., April 13, 1:00pm

COFFEE HOUSE WRITERS GROUP

Sat. April 13, 4:30pm

NANCY EDWARDS DANCE THEATRE

TEEN CRAFTY BOOK CLUB

Wednesday April 10th at 4:00 pm

The monthly Crafty Book Club is celebrating National Library week and National Poetry month with a discussion of "The Misadventures of Edgar and Allan Poe" by Gordon McAlpine. Our craft will be making a blackout poetry masterpiece. The winners of the Teen poetry Contest 2019 will be announced!

CHILDREN'S PLANTING CRAFT

Saturday April 13th from 11:00-1:00 pm

Located in the front garden, spend time in nature decorating a pot and planting your own sunflower to welcome the new life of spring.

NANCY EDWARDS DANCE THEATRE

Saturday April 13th at 4:30 pm

Back by popular demand, the Nancy Edwards Dance Theatre performs innovative modern dance. The dance troupe presents storytelling through movement using literature and audience participation.

Read, Discover, Connect @ Sierra Madre Public Library

440 W Sierra Madre Blvd

Sierra Madre, California 91024 | 626-355-7186

www.cityofsierramadre.com/services/library

Libraries = Strong COMMUNITIES

Featured Event: Coffee House Writers Group

Sat., April 13, 1:00pm

This panel will inspire the writer in all of us when they share the wisdom and know-how of professional writers. The group was formed to provide writers with a supportive and helpful environment to gain feedback from other writers. They look forward to sharing their education and experience with you.

Brian Shrout

Eric von
Mizener

Mary
Steinbronner
Lugo

Stacey
Roberts

Rick
Stepp-Bolling

Stephen
McCarthy

Read, Discover, Connect @ Sierra Madre Public Library