Guardian Naming Workshop
Saturday, May 4—10:00 am
Discover common mistakes parents make when naming guardians, how to choose the right guardians, how to make sure your assets are available to the guardians, and why a will alone is not enough. Each participant will leave with fully executed documents naming legal guardians for their minor children—plus a free gift. Pre-registration is highly recommended by calling 355-7186. Teen Volunteers will be available to watch children of attendees. All legal guardians must attend in order to take full advantage of this class.

Older American of the Year Reception
Friday, May 10—4:30-6:00 pm
We are happy to announce Paul Hagen as the Sierra Madre Older American of the year for 2019. Paul has served Sierra Madre as a dedicated volunteer firefighter for 25 years, while working for the Sierra Madre Water Department for two decades. He also offers weekly yoga classes for seniors... and these are just a few of his many accomplishments.

Please join us for a reception in his honor on May 10th at the Hart Park House.

Now That She’s Gone
Saturday, May 11—1:00 pm
Experience a baby-boomer anthem written & performed for adults by Ellen Snortland. Bring your grown-up sons and daughters who think you’re so straight-laced. You can wink at them while saying, “Been there, done that.” Where else could you see a memoir that includes adoration of Eleanor Roosevelt, praise of lutefisk, a chase scene for the guys, and a genuine 60s-era wild acid trip? Join us as Ellen makes you laugh, snort and occasionally shed a tear.

National Kids to Parks Day
Saturday, May 18, 8:00 am to 1:00 pm
Celebrate National Kids to Park Day at Mount Wilson Trail Park. We will learn history about Mount Wilson Trail, Lizzie’s Trail Inn and the Richardson House, and the SM Search & Rescue will be giving hiking safety tips before we take a guided tour of Mount Wilson Trail. Bring your hat, sunscreen and sneakers!
