POLICE DEPARTMENT BLOTTER
JULY 20th, 2014 TO JULY 27TH, 2014

During the week of Sunday, July 20th to Sunday, July 27th, the Sierra Madre Police Department responded to approximately 423 calls for service.

MONDAY, July 21st

At approximately 7:00pm, Sierra Madre Police Officers were driving North on Santa Anita Ave from Grandview Avenue. As Officers approached the center median, they noticed a male individual laying in the grass performing inappropriate acts on himself. The suspect seemed unfazed by the traffic passing through in the area he was exposed to. In an attempt to deter the suspect, Officers drove past him but the suspect continued his act. When Officers approached the suspect they noted that the suspect's pants and underwear were unzipped and opened. When the suspect was questioned by Officers, he claimed that he was simply resting. The suspect was arrested and charged with the violation of performing a lewd act in a public place.

At 7:57pm, Sierra Madre Police responded to the 350 North block of Lima St. regarding a petty theft report. When Officers arrived the victim informed them that she had placed an ad on a webpage inquiring for assistance around her home. At around 6:15pm she met with the suspect who had replied back to her ad and has the suspect move boxes from her attic to another location. Shortly after the suspect left, the victim noticed her white cellphone was missing. The victim attempted to locate it in her home and was unable, so she then called the suspect to ask if he had seen it prior to leaving which he informed her that he did not have it or had seen it. Using the phone locator, she victim was able to determine her phone was located in Irwindale. Several attempts to contact the suspect went unanswered. This case had been forwarded to the Detectives Bureau.

At approximately 8:35pm, Sierra Madre Police responded the 300 block of Sturtevant Dr. regarding a reckless driver. Upon arriving on scene, Officers were informed by on off-duty Officer and two victims that as they were traveling north up Mountain Trail Ave, the suspect rolled a stop sign and made a left turn from Grandview onto Mountain Trail Ave, nearly hitting the victim's vehicle. As both vehicles traveled up Mountain Trail, the suspect tailgated the victim. The suspect then pulled up alongside the victim and attempted to ram their vehicle, causing the victim to swerve. The victim caught up with the suspect and used her vehicle to block the vehicle in as the off-duty Officer identified himself and Sierra Madre Police was called. The suspect was arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon.

FRIDAY, July 25th

At 6:10pm, Sierra Madre Police responded to the 300 East block of Laurel Ave. regarding a residential burglary report. Upon arriving, Officers were informed by the victim that after doing some errands away from home, he came back to discover his laptop, passport, and legal documents pertaining to a pending divorce and restraining order were missing. He indicated a separate laptop that was next to the one that was stolen was left untouched, along with all his check books and personal information in the desk the laptop was left on. When questioned by Officers as to who could have done this, the suspect informed them he believes it was his wife. He informed them that she had called multiple times throughout the day and when he informed her he was out on an errand she abruptly hung up. A thorough investigation determined there to be no signs of forced entry. This case has been forwarded to the Detectives Bureau.
