

APRIL 2012

Recently retired Associate Librarian Margaret Duran began her Sierra Madre Public Library career in 1966. Margaret has authored several booklets on the history of the Library and in 1976 she helped conceive and coordinate the Sierra Madre Historical Quilt project. Margaret's exemplary research, evaluation, and cataloging skills have developed the Library's collections. In 1987, the centennial year of the Library, Margaret authored a history of the library which was published in booklet form. In 1998, she presented a book talk at the Mitford Appreciation Tea held at Library. In 2009, Margaret received the George Maurer Lifetime Service Award.
